

Collaborative Interdisciplinary Team Education and Information Seminar: Learning How to Use the Full Disciplinary Model in Collaborative Practice

PRESENTED BY
COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE MANITOBA

February 18th, 2011

Norwood Hotel
112 Marion Street
Winnipeg, Manitoba

Workshop 9:00 a.m.
Lunch 12:00 noon
Workshop 1:00 -5:00 p.m.

Registration $250 + GST

For further information contact info@collaborativepracticemanitoba.ca

Collaborative Interdisciplinary Team Education and Information Seminar*

You will want to attend this session if you want to learn what is currently the state of the art in collaborative practice.

The practice of collaborative law is evolving into the use of a full team of professionals including coaches, financial specialists, child specialists and collaborative lawyers.

This session will be substantive and interactive and allow you to learn the practices and processes required to work in a full team model.

FACILITATED BY ANU OSBORNE, JUDY HAID, D. SCOTT SPENCE, AND GREG EVANS

Anu Osborne

Anu is a senior family law practitioner and is a partner with the law firm of Smith Osborne LLP.

Judy Haid

Judy has a masters degree in Clinical Counseling and works as a marriage and family therapist with Haid Smith Counseling.

D. Scott Spence

Scott is a financial specialist and provides financial services for separating couples as the principal at Second Half Planning Solutions.

Greg Evans

Is a family law practitioner and is a partner with the law firm Evans Fraser Law Corporation.

* This program qualifies as 7.0 hours towards Collaborative Practice Manitoba's continuing education requirement.