

2022 TRAININGS REGISTRATION FORM

In-person training on conflict resolution and basic interdisciplinary collaborative practice over six sessions on Thursdays and Fridays as follows:

March 10 and 11 – 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day

March 24 and 25 – 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day

April 7 and 8 – 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day

Location: TBA (please be advised that we expect venues will require proof of full vaccination for COVID-19)

Registrant Information:

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Professional Designation(s): _____

Firm / Organization: _____

Email: _____

Qualifications (education): _____

Trainers: Pat Lane, Q.C., Shannon Breckman, Greg Evans, Tammy Fraser & Mary Bergen

Price: $1,350.00

Please register and make payment via PayPal on our website: <http://www.collaborativepracticemanitoba.ca/>
Alternatively, please make cheques payable to Collaborative Practice Manitoba Inc. and send to:

Tanya M. Keller
c/o Sternat Manaigre Law Corporation
601-211 Bannatyne Avenue
Winnipeg, Manitoba
R3B 3P2

Completed Registration Forms and fees are due by January 31, 2022, but space is limited to the first 20 registrations received. We will keep a waitlist and may admit further registrations as space may permit.

Cancellation Policy: No refunds.

We are pleased to offer a one-year complimentary membership upon completion of the full training required to become a Collaborative Practice Manitoba member.

CONTACT INFO: info@collaborativepracticemanitoba.ca

While Collaborative Practice Manitoba cannot provide any guarantee or certification from the Law Society of Manitoba that these trainings will apply towards your mandatory Continuing Professional Development hour requirements, it has been our experience in the past that the trainings have been accepted as qualifying CPD hours and that the trainings also each included sufficient ethics, professionalism and/or practice management components to qualify for the 1.5 hours of required EPPM CPD hours.

Mental Health Professionals will receive 20% off the above-listed costs.